Resentment on regularisation of Junior Floor Assistants in Delhi Doordarshan

2281. SMT. ANANDIBEN JETHABHAI PATEL: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) the number of floor assistants working in Doordarshan (Delhi) since 1984-85, out of them the number of floor assistants working as casual assistants on contract basis since then;

(b) the number of casual assistants absorbed in Doordarshan till date;

(c) whether there has been resentment and representation against the appointment of most junior, floor assistants on regular basis ignoring the seniority of others in the same cadre;

(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) by when the services of the floor assistants working in Delhi Doordarshan will be regularised?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI P.M. SAYEED): (a) Total number of floor assistants working in Doordarshan (Delhi) since 1984-85 is 218, out of which 188 are working on casual assignment basis.

(b) So far 102 Casual Floor Assistants have been regularised in Doordarshan.

(c) and (d) Representations are being received from casuals, from time to time, alleging that their juniors are being regularised ignoring their seniority. These representations are examined on the basis of norms and guidelines prescribed in the schemes, approved by Hon'ble Central Administrative Tribunal, Principal Bench, New Delhi, for regularisation of casuals and necessary action is taken accordingly.

(e) The regularisation of Casual Floor Assistants will depend upon the future availability of vacancies. Therefore, it is difficult to predict any definite time-frame for this purpose.
